NATIONAL REPUBLICAN. MONETARY MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., FEBRUARY 24, 1881,

CONUNDRUM. BY GUS MERRITT.

"Twas Harry who the silence broke:
"Miss Kate, why are you like a tree!"
"Because, because—I'm board," she spoke.
"Oh, no; because you're woo'd," said he.

"Thave a—heart" he asked so low.

Her answer made the young man red—

"Because you're sappy; don't you know?"

"Why are you like a tree, again?"
He scratched his head this time and thunk And gave it up. "I'll tell you, then," She laughed, "because you both get trunk." "Once more," she asked, "why are you now A tree?" He couldn't quite perceive.

Trees leave sometimes and make a bough,
And you can also bow—and leave."

EATABLES.

-The eight-year-old daughter of a family who has the decorative craze the worst way was discovered the other day with the big album. dambing the faces of the photographs of her parents brothers, and sisters with water colors. When the little innocent was scolded she replied that she was "only decorating family mugs." -An ingenious mother, who has long been bothered by the fastidiousness of her children at the table, has at last discovered a method of circumvending them. She places what she must each child to cat before its neighbor at the table, and of course each cries for what the other has, and the ends of justice are promoted,-Chic. -A Western exchange wants to know why anthracite coal is delivered in London for $4.50 ner ton and at Decorah, Iowa, for $11.90, if railroads ner ton and a become, for cotemporary doesn't appear to understand that it costs money to build nilbands, but the ocean was already there and meen't cost a cent for repairs.—Norridown Herald. -An Illinois man was arrested and and 52 for disturbing a debating club. We should like to know him. The man who has got the voice and energy to disturb a debating club, prothis time latter is healthy and active in its dia-bolical mission, is worthy our acquaintance, and ought to be given a Government position as a fog-horn on a stern and rock-bound coast.—Local

-Resulties of moral courage: "You look so happy that I suppose you have been to the dentist and had that aching tooth pulled," said a Universities man to a friend with a swollen jaw. "It min't that that makes me look happy. The tooth aches worse than ever, but I don't feel it." "How letter?" "Well, I feel so jolly because I have just been to the dentist and he was out," and the happy maneut a pigeon-wing on the sidewalk,-Gales-

-Little Jean, twenty months old, was making persistent efforts to stand on her head. Her mother said: "I don't see what gave her the idea, she never saw any one do it. In a few minutes Jean came cuming with her picture book open at the illustration in Mother Hubbard : she went to the baker's to buy him some bread and when she came back he stood on his head. and pointing triumphantly to the upside-down

-In a Scottish rural church, on a Sunday sat a donce countryman rejoicing in the patriscolal name of Abraham, who had brought a musly puddin'" wherewith to form what is known in polite circles as a lunch, to cat between the preachings. During the first diet of worship the minister frequently repeated the text, "What hast thou in thy bosom, Abraham?" when his parishiner, awakening of a sudden after a very toreion repetition of the text, cried out, "Oh, its

A Big Bailroad Suit.

A bill in equity has been filed in the United States Circuit Court, San Franisco, by C. P. Huntington to restrain the them and Central Pacific Railroads and their branches from paying, and tax collectors in the different counties through which they pass from offeeting, the taxes levied on the basis of the sment fixed by the State board of equalization. Fifty suits have been drawn, covering every ile of railroad owned by the two companies in State. The complainant alleges that the tax and assessment are void on constitutional grounds: First, because the bill under which the assessment was made embraced more than one subject; secand because the clause of the constitution dividing the executive, legislative, and judicial powers of the lovernment is infringed by the act of the board of conslication; third, because the board did not resess the property at its actual value; and, fourth, the board did not assess the improvements separately, as the law provides. Judge Sawyer granted the restraining order, summoning the defendants to show cause why an injunction should not be granted, returnable next Monday.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Wall Street Transactions-The Latest Quotations in Stocks and Bonds-New York and Baltimore Produce Markets-The Loudon Money and Stock Market.

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market yesterday, together with highest, lowest, and closing stock quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1492 F street, Washington, D. C.: We have to record a very gloomy day for "bulls" to-day. The market opened a trifle up from Monday's closing, but soon weakened and looked exceed-ingly demoralized. Gould was said to have been a very heavy seller. The entire list sold short this morning; could have been bought in this evening with a handsome profit. The general decline shows a depreciation of from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The most noticeable declines have been Pacific Mail, $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; Reading, 4 per cent.; Iron Mountain, 31/2 per cent.; Jersey Central, 3 per cent.; New York Central, 3 per cent.; Lake Shore, Missouri, Kansas and Texas. North-west, Wabash, St. Paul, Ontario and Western, and Canada Southern, each 214 per cent off. The street feeling is very weak, and operators seem paralyzed by the uncertainty of the public mind regarding the great financial question now being so earnestly discussed throughout the land, Total sales: Pacific Mail, 48,800; Western Union, 9,500; Northwest, 17,800; do preferred, 400; Rock Island, 1,500; St. Paul, 32,900; do preferred, 200; C. The stock market opened generally strong and higher, and subsequently rose a fraction, making the full advance 14(63) per cent., the latter in New Jersey Central. Before the first board, however, the entire market became weak, and prices took a downward turn. The speculation continued much depressed throughout the afternoon, and although there were occasional slight recoveries, prices continued to tend downward to the close of business, when the lowest figures of the day were generally current. The decline from the highest point ranged from 1 to 5 per cent., the latter in Oregon Navigation, Pacific Mail seiling off 3½ per cent., New Jersey Central, Reading, Nashville and Chattanoogo, Northern Pacific preferred, and Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans 4 per cent., Texas Pacific 3½ per cent., St. Paul 3½ per cent., Canada Southern and Wabash Pacific 3½ per cent., Iron Mountain 3½ per cent., Delaware and Hudson 3½ per cent. and Denver and Rio Grande 4 per cent. 29th POPULAR MONTHLY DRAWING

Commonwealth Distribution Co. AT MACAULEY'S THEATRE, In the City of Louisville, on MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1881. MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1881.

These drawings occur monthly (Sundays excepted) under provisions of an act of the General Assembly of Kentacky incorporating the Newport Printing and Newspaper Company, approved April 9, 1878.

23 This is a special act, and has never been repealed. The United States Circuit Court, on March 31, rendered the following decision:

First—That the Commonwealth Distribution Company is legal.

Second—Its drawings are fair.

This company has now on handa large reserve fund. Read carefully the list of prizes for the

THE LITTLE HAVANA COMPANY, Royal Havana Lottery.

Takes place February 17, 1881, March 5, 1881, March 22, 1881. Desiring to meet the very general demand for low-priced Tickets, we have devised a Supplementary Series of Prizes, cased upon the regular Drawings of the Royal Havana Lottery, the amount of Prizes in which are as follows:

Grand Priza l do. do. 2 Prizes of $200 each. 2 Approximations of $20 each to the number preceding and following the one drawing $1,000....

... U. S. Currency, $13,320 In the supplement, as in the ordinary, there are 25,000 tickets, numbered from 1 to 25,000. The same number that draws the capital prize in the ordinary drawing of the Royal Havana Lottery draws the capital prize in the supplement. So, too, with the second and third capital and all other prizes above named.

The 250 prizes of $2 each will be determined by the two terminal units of the number drawing the capital prize. orize. The tickets in the Supplement are sold at the uniform price.

WHOLES, $1; HALVES, 50 CENTS.

Prizes paid in full in United States currency immediately on presentation of ticket.
